WHAT IS FELLOWSHIP?

Fellowship of FPM
recognises
achievement at a high
level in the profession,
conferring peer
recognition
and FFPM
post-nominals.

FFPM

AM I ELIGIBLE?

Eligibility is based on experience and

seniority in the

specialty, and

there is no longer

a requirement to serve as a Member of FPM.

WHO CAN NOMINATE ?

Nominations can be submitted by a current Fellow of FPM in good standing.

or

Applicants can nominate themselves with the support of a current Fellow of FPM in good standing.

TWO ROUTES TO FELLOWSHIP

- Membership Route
- Direct Application Route

As a minimum all applicants must:

- Hold a medical qualification
- Have current medical registration
- Be in good standing with the GMC (UK), or analogous body

APPLICANTS FOR BOTH ROUTES MUST

demonstrate their contributions to pharmaceutical medicine.

And provide evidence of their contributions, or intended contribution,
to FPM.

THE MEMBERSHIP ROUTE

Current Members
of FPM (MFPM)
are eligible to apply
for Fellowship
via this route.

DIRECT APPLICATION ROUTE

Affiliate members, Associate members and non-members of FPM, who are pharmaceutical physicians, can apply for Fellowship via the direct route.

Direct applications must also include a statement as to why they are applying for Fellowship of FPM without having first become a Member.
